I couldn't find any information on a viral explosion related to the TV show 'EastEnders' or a trending topic breaking out for this specific show. 'EastEnders' is a long-running British soap opera, but I'll assume you're asking for an analysis on a hypothetical viral phenomenon related to the show.

However, I can provide a general analysis on how a soap opera like 'EastEnders' could become a viral sensation.

If 'EastEnders' were to experience a viral explosion, it's likely due to a dramatic plot twist, shocking character death, or a memorable scene that resonates with audiences. Here are a few possible scenarios that could contribute to its sudden virality:

1. Character death shocker: A well-written and executed storyline that involves the untimely death of a beloved character could spark widespread discussion and debate online. Fans might share theories, speculate about the motives behind the death, and express their grief on social media platforms.
2. Iconic moment: A memorable scene, such as a dramatic confrontation, a heartfelt confession, or a surprising revelation, could become a viral sensation if captured and shared by fans on platforms like TikTok, Twitter, or YouTube. The scene might be edited, remixed, or even turned into a meme, further amplifying its reach.
3. Social media campaign: A clever marketing strategy or a fan-driven social media campaign could propel 'EastEnders' to viral fame. For example, a hashtag challenge or a fan art contest could encourage viewers to engage with the show and share their creations online, creating a buzz around the series.
4. Collaborations and crossovers: A high-profile collaboration with another popular TV show, a music artist, or a social media influencer could introduce 'EastEnders' to a new audience, sparking interest and excitement among fans.

To become today's biggest internet sensation, a viral phenomenon related to 'EastEnders' would need to meet the following conditions:

* Relevance: The content should be relevant to the show's current storyline or themes.
* Originality: The content should be unique, creative, and attention-grabbing.
* Reach: The content should be shared widely across various social media platforms.
* Timing: The content should be released at the right moment, capitalizing on the show's current popularity or a significant event, such as a season finale or a special episode.

While I couldn't find any information on a specific 'EastEnders' viral phenomenon, this analysis provides a general framework for understanding how a soap opera like 'EastEnders' could become a viral sensation.
